A collection of the best writings of this great suther, most profusely illustrated, with over 400 pages. It is the funniest nook ever pub-lished, Bill Nye needs no introduction. The mention of the book is enough:

BILL NYE'S REMAKKS:

"I have passed through an carthquake and an indian cutbreak, but i would rather ride an earthquake without saidale or bridle, than to besiride a succession brondlo eruption."

"Age brings caulion and a lot of shop-worn experience, purchased at the highest market price. Time brings wath regrets and wisdom testh that can be left in a glass of water overnight."

night."
"Too much of our hotel food tastes like the second day of January, or the fifth day of July, That's the whole thing in a few words, and unless the good hotels are hearer together, we shall have to multiply our cometery facilities."

PRESS NOTICES: "When Bill Nye turns himself loose for fun the laughing belts of renders should be tight-ened to prevent accidents."—Inter-Ocean, Chicago.
